Mid-western Folks Lose Lives in Sea Plane

Mr. August Bulte

Mr. Lawrence Smith

A determination to live up to the letter of his responsibility in caring for his passengers is the reason sea-plane pilot Robert Moore lives to tell of a thrilling 56-hour struggle in the gulf stream off the Florida coast, in which five pleasure seekers from mid-western states lost their lives.

Mr. and Mrs. August Bulte, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith of Kansas City, and Mrs. J. S. Dickson of Memphis were those lost after a heroic effort against waves, storm and exposure.

They were passengers on the sea-plane "Miss Miami" which made 40-minute trips between Miami, Fla., and Bimini, West India Island. When within three minutes of their destination on Wednesday, a pro-pellor blade broke, forcing the sea-plane down.

The craft landed within a mile of a fishing boat, but, caught in the gulf stream, it was carried north, signals for help being unheeded. One of the sea-plane's pontoons sprang a leak, and in the heavy sea the plane was overturned. The passengers were thrown into the sea. Moore succeeded in getting Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Bulte back on top the wreckage, but Mrs. Dickson and Mr. Bulte were lost.

Then started the battle against wave and a storm which came to the night. The two women died from exposure. Smith died on Thursday, Moore was found Friday by a passing fishing boat, strapped to the wreckage, and unconscious.

DELINQUENTS OF JUVENILES ARE MUCH IMPROVED

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, April 7.—Under the kindly influence of municipal playgrounds, the juvenile delinquent is disappearing all over the nation, the Playground and Recreation Association of America announces.

A statement on the growth of public recreation activities during the last year has been issued by the association as a report on a survey which covered all principal cities of the country. It showed that almost $9,000,000 was spent by 502 cities for that purpose. This was $1,500,000 more than was spent in 1920 by the same municipalities.

Bond issues totalling $5,000,000 were voted for recreation by 29 cities and more than $1,000,000 worth of property was donated by individuals and organizations for public playgrounds and recreation centers.

"Bill has been so busy stealing bases this summer he has had no time to steal anything else," a report from one city credited a juvenile judge with saying. Since they turned the sand lot into a regular baseball diamond and organized the Sand Lot Baseball league in that city, Bill has been seen in the courts no more, the judge declared.

Chicago spent more than $1,000,000 on recreation, the association reported. Detroit appropriated $370,000; Duluth, Minn., voted $50,000 for a municipal golf course and Memphis, Tenn., completed a swimming pool at a cost of $100,000.

Community theaters, classes in folk dancing, story telling hours for children, walking clubs, gardening and handicraft are some of the many recreational activities now being enthusiastically promoted by American cities, the survey disclosed. More than 100 cities reported that they are maintaining summer camps for vacations at reasonable rates.

MOTORBOAT AND YACHT CLUBS CONSOLIDATED

(By Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, April 7.—Final arrangements for the consolidation of the Los Angeles motorboat club and the Los Angeles yacht club, the merger of which was announced some time ago, have been completed, with the result that the two organizations, which are said to be the oldest of their kind in southern California, are now one.

The name and burgee of the Los Angeles yacht club has been retained, but the club house and anchorage of the motor boat club will serve as the home of the new organization.

As a result of the merger, the club now boasts a fleet of 140 craft and more than 300 members, said to be the largest membership of any yacht club on the Pacific coast.

Otto G. Wilkey, former commodore of the Los Angeles motor boat club, will serve the new organization in a similar capacity, while Eugene Overton, formerly a flag officer of the yacht club, has been elected vice-commodore of the new fleet. Morgan Adams has been chosen as rear-commodore.

REWARD
